

Do not give in to this obvious corporate coercion. Protect the privacy of those who want it by not weakening Wisconsin's No Call law, to do so would amount to a capitulation to moneyed interests at the expense of the public good.